BANDINFO

MUFF is punk rocking sex appeal together with an enormous portion of energy, style and self-confidence. Sex, Drugs & Rock'n'Roll of a great delicacy is pulsating in the veins of a new generation. Towards that, Muff supplies the perfect soundtrack with their brilliant mix of rooted (indigenous?) overdrive rock with trash loan. Through that they seem to be perfectly predestined to rise into the scene-nobility.

The songs of the five Hanoverian come tied up as an emotional and technical full-blown parcel direct in front of your doorstep with a banging shut.

After their foundation in year 2000 these ladies and gentleman have fed countless rock-hungry mouths since 2001 with over 130 concerts spreading from Hanover to Hamburg, Bremen, Cologne Luxemburg and the Netherlands.

MUFF has given their soul to the punk sound of the US-west coast and spraying a good amount of charm with their two front women who offer, next to their biting flattering organs, also optical a coquettish charisma which makes not only a feast for the ears with every performance.

These five and especially the front ladies are aware of this over stimulation – more than aware but not unhappy!

The quintet knew from the beginning that the music business is hard work and they are more than willing to get the expected rock fame by bloody fingers, sweated gear and drained songbooks.

At MUFF everything revolves around music and performance. With that they want to fire young girls to grown musicians with enthusiasm; everybody who manages without put on attitudes.

Now it is time to forge the iron further for the sympathetic crew until the success is in place that MUFF deserves since long time.
